CHANGE PLEA TO "NOT GUILTY"

Surprise Sprung In "Cold Check" Cases When Hubert McCall's Case Is Called In Court.

The "cold check" cases took a surprising turn when circuit court was reconvened this afternoon. Hubert McCall, who was indicted in two cases, withdrew his plea of not guilty, made at his examining trial, and on previous arraignment before this court, and entered a plea of not guilty. The charge against him will therefore, be tried out on its merits.

There was some delay in securing a jury. The regular panel was exhausted before 12 men could be found who had not formed and expressed an opinion in the case. Most of those who were excused, said that they had heard the cases talked of or had read of it in the newspapers.

It was three o'clock before the jury was finally completed, and attorneys began statements of the case. McCall is charged with obtaining goods under false pretenses from Hamilton Bros., of this city, by giving them a check on the State Bank & Trust Co., of this city, when he had no funds therein. The check was for $44.50 and was in payment for some shoes and a suit he bought from them, it is alleged, under the alias of Charley Johnson, the name that is signed to the check.

The court room was packed again to its capacity this afternoon, when the cases were called. Hubert McCall and his wife, Alice McCall, who is also under indictment on a similar charge, sat by their attorneys.

They had their two babies in their laps. One is little boy of two years and the other is a little girl of four. Both slept in their parents' arms, wholly unaware of the serious predicament that they faced. The mother cried all during the examination of the jury-men. Judge H. C. Rice, of this city, is sitting with the counsel for the defendants during this trial.

The statements of attorneys to the jury was beginning as the Daily Register's report for today closed.

Coy Hatton Given Three Years

Coy Hatton was given three years in the penitentiary by a jury in circuit court this morning on his plea of guilty of having given a fraudulent check for $44 to Hamilton Bros. of this city, for goods obtained.

Hatton's case was the first of the four "cold checks" cases to be given to a jury for judgement, when the trials of the indictments against them were called by Judge Shackelford this morning. There is one other indictment against Hatton; in fact, two against each of the defendants, the others being Hatton's wife and Hubert and Alice McCall. Judge Shackelford passed hearing of the other cases until after dinner, as the attorneys were engaged in lengthy conferences.

An immense crowd was in the circuit court room when these cases were called this morning. No case in some time has attracted so much interest. It is understood that an effort is being made to have the two men tried, and the cases against their wives continued if possible. One of the women has a four-months old baby, it is claimed, and the other has two very small children. In addition to this plea, which is being made by the attorneys for the defense, it is claimed that the two families have out a large crop of tobacco, which will be utterly lost if all are sent to the penitentiary.

The four defendants appeared in court this morning when their names were called, and thus upset predictions of many that they would forfeit their $4,000 bond, and skip out rather than face certain penitentiary terms. They were represented by an array of able counsel. In addition to Attorney A. R. Burnam, Jr., of this city, Attorney Mat Walton, of Lexington, again appeared for them and these two very prominent lawyers were assisted by County Attorney W. E. Baxter, of Jessamine county.

A former demurser to the indictment was entered by Attorney Burnam, but promptly overruled by the court. Hubert McCall then signed an affidavit setting forth grounds for a continuance of the cases outlined above.

SAYS MORE BIG SHIPS NOT NEEDED

(By Associated Press) Washington, May 27—it would be inadvisable to authorize the construction of more capital ships than are included in the navy's 1916 building program. Secretary Daniels said today, testifying before the House Naval Affairs Committee. He said that since the United States initiated the League of Nations it should show "confidence in that covenant" by not authorizing at this time ten battleships and ten scout cruisers as proposed several months ago by the Navy Department.

Alexander owns Escoba the widely known race horse, and the beaten favorite in the 1918 Kentucky Derby. Rhodes and Alexander are boon companions. Rhodes will be married to Miss Helen Hickman, of Louisville, in the fall.

Walter Blevins Acquitted

While waiting for the lawyers in the cold check cases to argue various points, Judge Shackelford called for trials of a number of smaller cases on the criminal docket. The Judge brooks no delay and he keeps things moving all the time. Walter Blevins was acquitted by a jury on a charge of pointing a pistol at Jas. Rucker. The offense is alleged to have occurred in 1916. Blevins said that he had an unloaded pistol in his hands, but that he was trying to prevent Rucker from hitting him with a stick.

GIRLS WIN SUIT FROM LEXINGTON HERALD

Young Misses Mary Bronston and Lou Wells, of Richmond, won a hard-fought suit in quarterly court yesterday which had been brought against them by the Lexington Herald Company. The two young ladies for some time acted as local agents for the Herald, and through rain and snow last winter faithfully carried their "routes" and built up a nice clientele for that paper. Often the papers missed getting here on time, it seems, and at other times, extra papers were sent over, some of which were not sold. The young ladies claimed that when they made final settlement for their papers they owed the Lexington Herald Company $29. On the other hand, the Herald Company claimed they owed something like $127.

The young girls said that the agents for the Lexington paper had told them they would not have to pay for "extras" which were not sold, and would not have to pay for papers when they missed train connections and did not arrive in time to be of use to readers. However, the Herald asked that they pay for these papers. Attorney W. B. Walden, of Berea, represented the Herald Company, while half a dozen or so local attorneys volunteered to defend the young ladies, including Joe P. Chenault, O. P. Jackson, Judge H. C. Rice and others. Two or three bookkeepers and agents for the Herald were here to testify against the little girls, and the case was hard-fought all day before a jury in Judge Price's court. The jury remained out only a few minutes, however, and brought in a verdict for the settlement as claimed by the young ladies in every particular, and they were roundly congratulated by their many friends who were crowding the court room upon the victory they had won.

EUBANK GOES TO PEN

Gov. Staney refused to pardon Porter C. Eubank, who was tried and sentenced by a Madison county jury in the Montgomery circuit court last year, and he was taken to the penitentiary last week. The Mt. Sterling Democrat said of the case:

Porter C. Eubank, who in December of 1917, shot and killed Henry M. Ringo in the latter's place of business, following an argument over change and who was later convicted and sentenced to serve ten years in prison, was taken to Frankfort Wednesday morning to begin his term. Since the killing, Eubank has been confined in the county jail here. Following the conviction, a new trial was asked and refused by Judge Young and an appeal was made to the Court of Appeals. The higher court affirmed the case and as a final effort relatives and friends brought strong pressure to bear upon Gov. Staney to grant him a full pardon or to commute his sentence to a shorter term. A strong delegation of local people, representing both sides, went to Frankfort to confer with the governor and present their respective views on the matter. It appears that the delegation protesting against any executive clemency being shown the convicted man, was their point, for Governor Staney failed to take any action in the matter before leaving for Washington to take oath of office as United States Senator.

(By Associated Press) Pais, May 27—"It's very delightful for one thing, if I may say so, to know my Presidency is not ahead of me and that his presidency is ahead of him," said President Wilson in referring to Dr. Pessoa, president-elect of Brazil, at a dinner given to Pessoa by the Pan-American peace delegation last night.

EASTERN WINS ANOTHER VICTORY

The Eastern Normal base-ball boys journeyed to London, last week where they met and crossed bats with the fast Sue Bennett Memorial School team, in the fastest and hardest fight of the season. The Eastern boys were handicapped on account of not having had any practice for three weeks. Nevertheless, regardless of this and a wet field to play on, and every body yelling against them, they waded into the game with the same old spirit and pep that they have always shown, feeling confident that when the last man was retired victory would be theirs.

Fox, Eastern catcher, was working both at short and bat, making the only score of the entire game. Pittman, at 2nd played like an old timer, and with his wicked stick driving the liners to the outfield greatly assisted Trooper in making the only run. The playing was not confined to the infield by all means for it was impossible for the ball to be driven where it could not be reached by Liles, Scrivner or Hensley. Scrivner, in center field pulled down two of the nicest catches of the season, showing that although young in the game, he fills his position well.

This was the sixth game of the season, as well as the sixth victory for Eastern. The next game will be played with Kentucky Wesleyan, at Winchester, June 2, at which time all expect Eastern to add another victory to her list.

The very appropriate name selected for this Grand Addition with its magnificent shade, pretty flowers and shrubbery is famous throughout the state for its beauty, and we considered ourselves fortunate indeed, when we were able to get a price on it. We know of no other place so well located or adapted to the purpose of building sites and one has only to look it over to wish his home might be located right there.

Is widely known as one of the very best towns of the state, lying as it does right in the Blue Grass, yet being the logical gateway to the mountains and is bound to be a much larger city for with the fabulous wealth coming in now from the mountains, and on the other side the great crops from the magnificent farming lands there is bound to be more wealth in Richmond than has ever been known before. Her fame is already widespread on account of her financial institutions, her splendid tobacco markets, her culture and wealth and educational facilities that are unsurpassed.
